
AZERBAIJANI FM MEETS OUTGOING TURKISH AMBASSADOR

-

29.09.2016

28 September 2016

Trend

Azerbaijans Foreign Minister Elmar Mammadyarov has received Turkey's ambassador Ismail Alper Coskun, as he is completing his diplomatic mission in the country.

Noting that he is leaving Azerbaijan with good impressions, the ambassador expressed gratitude to Azerbaijani government as well as the Foreign Ministry for the support during his diplomatic activity, Azerbaijan's Foreign Ministry told Trend Sept. 28.

Mammadyarov, for his part, expressed gratitude to Coskun for his important role in intensifying the brotherly and friendly relations between Azerbaijan and Turkey.

The foreign minister praised the ambassadors activity in expanding the mutually beneficial and comprehensive cooperation between the two countries in political, economic, cultural, humanitarian and other spheres.

During the meeting, the parties said the cooperation between Azerbaijan and Turkey is developing incrementally in all the spheres, based on the principles of brotherhood and strategic partnership.

Mammadyarov once again expressed condolences to the brotherly Turkish people and relatives of those killed during the July 15 military coup attempt in the country. The minister pointed out that Azerbaijan and Turkey will always support each other.

The foreign minister wished Coskun success in his further diplomatic activities.

Kaynak/Source: