Pristina. Joint meeting of the governments of Kosovo and Macedonia is expected to be held soon and the two governments are expected to sign 15 agreements in the fields of justice, security, health and economy, Gazeta Express writes.

Kosovo Deputy Prime Minister, Enver Hoxhaj, confirmed this in a statement to the daily Epoka e Re saying that the meeting of the two governments will be held soon. Political commentators Blerim Reka and Imer Mushkolaj have welcomed holding of this joint meeting, but asked that the reached agreement should be implemented. According to them, concrete steps needs to be taken in order to improve daily life of citizens living in both sides of the border.
