Georgian Prime Minister Giorgi Gakharia has stated that the ongoing investigation into the Azerbaijan-Georgia border case will never affect the strategic partnership and friendly relations between the two countries, urging politicians to refrain from politicising the issue.

Two Georgian officials, former members of the state commission working on the demarcation of Georgias state border with Azerbaijan, were indicted and detained yesterday for hiding a map which resulted in the concession of 3,500 ha of Georgian lands to Azerbaijan between 1996 and 2007.
