
SALIH: ELECTORAL CORRUPTION IS A SERIOUS SCOURGE

- 06.11.2020

Iraqi News Agency (5 November 2020)

The President of the Republic, Barham Salih, affirmed that electoral and financial corruption are interconnected and represent a serious scourge that threatens societal peace. Today, Thursday,

The President of the Republic said in a speech regarding his ratification of the election law, which was followed by the Iraqi News Agency (INA), "In compliance with my constitutional duty, I approved the election law, in preparation for holding early, fair and fair elections."

He added, "The passage of this law comes after a long debate. The reform of the electoral law was a national demand to secure the right of Iraqis to choose their representatives away from pressure, blackmail and stealing their votes."

Click for more

Kaynak/Source: