European Sanctions (18 Kasım 2020)

The Dutch Parliament has adopted 3 motions concerning the on-going Nagorno-Karabagh conflict, calling on the Government to encourage the EU to:

1. Apply a moratorium on exports of weapons to Turkey that could be used in the conflicts in the Nagorno-Karabagh region, Libya or Syria (motion);
2. Impose sanctions on people in Azerbaijan and Turkey who are responsible for the violence in Nagorno-Karabagh (motion); and
3. Impose sanctions against Azerbaijani President İlham Aliyev, his family members, other key figures in the Azerbaijani offensive, and the Syrian fighters deployed by Turkey in Nagorno-Karabakh (motion).
