
AL ARAJİ: INTERNATIONAL MONITORING SHOWS THE WORLD'S INTEREST N IRAQ ELECTIONS

-

07.10.2021

Iraqi News Agency (6 October 2021)

National Security Adviser Qassim al-Araji stressed that the presence of international monitors gives a guarantee to all, and confirms the world's interest in the Iraqi elections.

Al-Araji received in his office on Wednesday, the Ambassador of the European Union to Iraq, Vele Variola, in the presence of the head of the European Advisory Mission Christoph Buick, and his deputy, Agne Gliviscati, according to the media office of the National Security Adviser statement received by the Iraqi News Agency (INA).

Al-Araji reviewed, "Iraq's preparations for October elections and the requirements for conducting and making them a success," as he stressed that "the Iraqi government is working to ensure that the polling stations are safe and prepared for the Iraqis' eligibility for the elections,

Click for more

Kaynak/Source: