
IRAQI PARLIAMENT FAILS TO ELECT THE NEW PRESIDENT

-

08.02.2022

Anadolu Agency (7 February 2022)

Ibrahim Saleh

Iraqi lawmakers on Monday failed to elect a new head of the state as political factions boycotted the parliament session.

The parliament's presidency cancelled the vote as it lacked quorum to hold a session, a parliamentary source told Anadolu Agency.

The source said that 58 out of 329 lawmakers attended the session, forcing the parliament's presidency to delay the session to elect the president.

Click for more

Kaynak/Source: