On 25 March, European Council President Charles Michel had separate bilateral telephone conversations with President of Azerbaijan İlham Aliyev and Prime Minister of Armenia Nikol Pashinyan.

Following his last meetings with both leaders in Munich on 16-17 February 2023, President Michel raised with them various topics discussed in the Brussels process between their first trilateral meeting on 14 December 2021 and their fourth meeting on 31 August 2022.

Michel reaffirmed the EUs strong commitment to helping the sides reach a long-awaited normalisation and sustainable peace and expressed concerns about the continuous crisis around the Lachin corridor, the recent casualties and sharp increase in tensions on the ground as well as accompanying negative rhetoric.
