COURT PARTIALLY ANNULS FRONTEX CASE IN TRANSPARENCY BLOW

-		26	5.04.2024

EU Observer (April 2024)

BY NIKOLAJ NIELSEN

A charity suing the EU's border agency Frontex over document access has had its case dismissed by the General Court of the European Union.

The verdict on Wednesday (24 April) is a blow for pro-transparency campaigners seeking to hold the Warsaw-based agency to account.

But while the judges in Luxembourg dismissed the case, they also faulted Frontex for failing to disclose the existence of relevant photographs.
