"On the eve of leaving the office, an EU officials such biased statements beyond its authority, first and foremost, is another blow to the reputation of the institution he represents," said Deputy Spokesperson of Azerbaijan's Foreign Ministry Vasif Aliyev in his response to the media inquiry regarding some claims related to Azerbaijan in the interview of Toivo Klaar, the former special representative of the European Union for the South Caucasus, Azernews reports.

"It is unacceptable for Toivo Klaar, the former special representative of the European Union for the South Caucasus, and the appointed ambassador of the European Union to Uzbekistan, to consider as a special case the issue of the return of Armenians voluntarily migrated from the Karabakh region of Azerbaijan to Armenia and other countries where they previously lived, and to condition the right of return of Azerbaijanis forcibly expelled from the territory of current Armenia. It is Armenia's obligation to create appropriate conditions for the safe and dignified return of Azerbaijanis expelled from Armenia to their native lands, and the international community must demand the fulfillment of this obligation."
