
BOSNIAN SERBS CELEBRATE BANNED HOLIDAY WITH MASSIVE PARADE

- 10.01.2025

Balkan Insight (9 January 2025)

Azem Kurtic

Delegations from Serbia, Montenegro and Russia joined thousands of locals at the annual parade held on January 9 celebrating the Day of Republika Srpska.

They defied two rulings by Bosnia's state-level Constitutional Court that declared the controversial celebration illegal.

Instead, Banja Luka, the administrative centre of Bosnia's Serb-led entity, saw a parade with more than 2,700 participants, including police and veteran associations but also student unions and NGOs.

Click for more

Kaynak/Source: