Regular dialogue should be maintained on political and security issues within the framework of inter-parliamentary cooperation among Turkic countries, Chairman of the Committee on Defense and Security of the Senate of the Oliy Majlis (Parliament) of Uzbekistan Kutbiddin Burkhanov said, Trend reports.

He made the remark during the 2nd Meeting of the Heads of Committees on Defense and Security of the TURKPA Member Parliaments.

"Given the complex and multipolar international environment, it is especially important for the defense and security committees of the Turkic states' parliaments to deepen regional cooperation in the joint fight against global threats such as terrorism, extremism, drug trafficking, and cybersecurity," the MP noted.
