In a significant diplomatic development, Azerbaijan has expressed admiration for Pakistans remarkable success following recent military tensions with India. Pakistans Prime Minister, Shehbaz Sharif, in a phone call with Azerbaijan's President Ilham Aliyev, extended his heartfelt thanks for Azerbaijan's unwavering support during the crisis.

The Prime Ministers Office (PMO) issued a statement highlighting that during the conversation, PM Shehbaz Sharif expressed profound gratitude to President Aliyev for his countrys steadfast support during the South Asian conflict. He called Azerbaijan's commitment another demonstration of President Aliyev's great love and affection for the people of Pakistan.

In response, President Aliyev warmly congratulated Pakistan on its success and commended the countrys efforts towards achieving peace. He also expressed Azerbaijan's strong support for the Pakistan-India ceasefire agreement, which was reached after intense military confrontations.
