The Organization of Turkic States (OTS) on Wednesday adopted the Budapest Declaration, which said that the Turkish Republic of Northern Cyprus (TRNC), alongside other observers Hungary and Turkmenistan, is an inseparable part of the Turkic world.

The declaration was issued following the informal summit of the OTS held in Hungary's capital Budapest, according to Turkish Foreign Ministry sources.

The declaration, adopted by the Council of Heads of State on May 21, included articles emphasizing unity within the organization, solidarity among Turkic states, strong support for the TRNC, and matters of importance and priority for Türkiye.
