On May 29, Armenian Minister of Foreign Affairs Ararat Mirzoyan met with U.S. Deputy Assistant Secretary of State for European and Eurasian Affairs Joshua Huck, according to the Armenian Foreign Ministry.

Joshua Huck described the meeting with Minister Mirzoyan as great, noting that it focused on the growing U.S.-Armenia partnership and progress on peace.

A strong relationship with Armenia creates greater prosperity for all our citizens, Huck added in a brief statement released by the U.S. Embassy in Yerevan.
