
SPANISH PM SORRY FOR CORRUPTION SCANDAL AS OPPOSITION DEMANDS RESIGNATION

-

13.06.2025

BBC News (12 June 2025)

Paul Kirby

Prime Minister Pedro Sánchez has apologised to the Spanish people after an escalating corruption scandal brought down a senior Socialist party colleague.

Sánchez, who has led Spain since 2018, said there was no such thing as "zero corruption" and he sought to put to distance himself from the affair, ruling out early elections.

Opposition conservative leader Alberto Núñez Feijóo said it was time for Sánchez to resign: "Survival is no longer an option."

Click for more

Kaynak/Source: