Victory to Palestine, From river to sea, Palestine will be free, were among slogans chanted by crowd gathered at Athens Syntagma Square

Hundreds of Greeks gathered on Thursday night in central Athens to chant slogans calling for an immediate end to Israel's ongoing genocide in Gaza.

The Stop the War Alliance organized the rally, which took place in the capital's central Syntagma Square and was attended by hundreds of people from rights groups, pro-Palestinian organizations, and a number of left-wing political parties.
