A left-wing opposition party in Greece on Tuesday criticized the sale of a major domestic defense company to Israel's SK Group, which owns Israeli Military Industries (IMI) and Israeli Shipyards.

"It is not a simple sell-out, but another act of complicity of the (Kyriakos) Mitsotakis regime with the genocide in Palestine, the New Left party said in a statement.

"At the time of the genocide, the Mitsotakis government, is tying the country to Israel's chariot, proceeding with a nationally detrimental choice that gives away critical sectors on terms of servitude, is said.
