A delegation from Uzbekistan, headed by Minister of Foreign Affairs Bakhtiyor Saidov, is set to hit the road for official visits to the Kingdom of Bahrain and the State of Qatar from August 19 through 21, Trend reports via Uzbek MFA.

During the visit, the delegation is poised to engage in high-level negotiations with governmental stakeholders and convene with executives from premier enterprises in both nations, with the objective of fortifying bilateral relations and identifying avenues for economic and trade synergies.

Uzbekistan has been strategically enhancing its bilateral engagements with Gulf nations, emphasizing sectors such as capital infusion, energy diversification, and commercial exchange. In recent years, Bahrain and Qatar have engaged in synergistic economic forums and collaborative projects with Uzbekistan, underscoring an escalating partnership in the realms of finance, infrastructure, and technological innovation.
