Caliber (25 March 2026)

EU foreign ministers last week approved sending a rapid response team to Armenia to counter hybrid threats ahead of the countrys parliamentary elections scheduled for June 7.

Armenian Foreign Minister Ararat Mirzoyan sent a letter to the EU requesting measures to prevent hybrid threats in the run-up to the vote, Caliber.Az reports via Armenian media.

The new mission will consist of 9 personnel tasked with countering external information manipulation, interference, and cyber threats. The team is expected to be deployed in Armenia at the end of March or early April for a 10-15-day assignment.
