In a significant step to bolster bilateral ties, Turkish President Recep Tayyip Erdogan and Pakistani Prime Minister Shehbaz Sharif on Thursday signed 24 cooperation agreements across various sectors following the seventh meeting of the High-Level Strategic Cooperation Council in Islamabad.

The meeting took place after a one-on-one discussion between the two leaders at the prime minister's office.

The highlight of the discussions was the signing of a joint declaration, titled "Deepening, Diversifying, and Institutionalizing the Strategic Partnership," which outlines a renewed commitment to strengthen relations between Türkiye and Pakistan.
