
KAZAKHSTAN, EU SEEK TO STRENGTHEN BILATERAL AND INTERREGIONAL COOPERATION

-

06.05.2025

Kazinform International News Agency (5 May 2025)

Deputy Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Kazakhstan Roman Vassilenko held a meeting with Ambassador of the European Union to Kazakhstan Aleška Simkič, Kazinform News Agency cites the press service of the Kazakh MFA.

During the conversation, the parties compared notes on current issues of multifaceted cooperation and specifically discussed the main outcomes of the Central Asia – European Union Summit, which took place in Samarkand on April 4, 2025.

According to Deputy Minister Vassilenko, "the Summit marked a new chapter in our relations, elevating the level of regional cooperation to strategic partnership. The Kazakh diplomat welcomed the announcement of an EU Investment Package for Central Asia totaling 12 billion euros, emphasizing the importance of the prompt and complete implementation of the proposed plans.

Click for more

Kaynak/Source: