The Ambassador of the Republic of Iraq to Ankara, Majid Al-Lajmawi, discussed the possibility of reopening embassies in both countries with the Chargé d'Affaires of the Embassy of the Republic of Afghanistan to the Republic of Turkey, Muhammad Zubair Wadan.

A statement from the Ministry of Foreign Affairs received by the Iraqi News Agency (INA) stated that "The Ambassador of the Republic of Iraq to Ankara, Majid Al-Lajmawi, received the Chargé d'Affaires of the Embassy of the Republic of Afghanistan to the Republic of Turkey, Muhammad Zubair Wadan, in his office at the Iraqi Embassy building in the Turkish capital, Ankara."

"The meeting discussed bilateral relations between Iraq and Afghanistan and ways to strengthen them to serve the common interests of the two countries. The possibility of reopening the Iraqi and Afghan embassies in each country was also discussed, which would contribute to the resumption of full diplomatic representation between them and the consolidation of official relations between the two sides."
