There are no structures of Nagorno-Karabakh in Armenia, Speaker of Parliament Alen Simonyan has said.

There are no Karabakh structures in Armenia, and whatever structures there are that can be called as some kind of structures cant be anything more than the level of NGOs. Otherwise I demand the relevant state bodies to give a response because the Republic of Armenia is a state, and there is no other structure, no other structure exists or is recognized by anyone within the state, he said.
