Straits Times (17 June 2025)

Indonesian President Prabowo Subianto will hold talks with President Vladimir Putin in Russia this week to explore ways to deepen what their foreign ministers cast on June 17 as a burgeoning strategic partnership.

Russian Foreign Minister Sergei Lavrov, speaking at a meeting in Moscow with his Indonesian counterpart Sugiono, said Mr Putin will meet Mr Prabowo in St Petersburg on June 19.

Russia is due to hold its annual economic forum this week in the northern city, at which Mr Putin traditionally gives a keynote speech and hosts a foreign leader.
