Kazakh Deputy Prime Minister and Foreign Minister Murat Nurtleu took part in the regular meeting of the Council of Foreign Ministers of the Shanghai Cooperation Organization (SCO) member states on July 15 in Tianjin, where participants discussed strengthening foreign policy coordination and preparing for the upcoming SCO Summit in September.

In his remarks, Nurtleu expressed strong confidence in the organizations potential to build mutually beneficial partnerships for sustainable development and to transform the SCO space into a region of peace and prosperity, reported the Kazakh Foreign Ministrys press service.

I am convinced that the SCO will continue to strengthen its international authority and effectiveness as a multilateral institution with a unique model of equal cooperation based on the principles of the Shanghai Spirit, said Nurtleu.
