Armenia will require international partners during the construction phase of the Trump Roadmap for Peace and Prosperity (TRIPP) project, Armenian Foreign Minister Ararat Mirzoyan said on Friday, AzerNEWS reports.

Speaking at a joint press conference with Estonian Foreign Minister Margus Tsakhkna, Mirzoyan highlighted the next steps in the implementation of the initiative, which is being developed in cooperation with the United States.

We hope that soon we will move on to the next stage, the construction phase. At this stage, we will need partners from third countries, he said.
