
PROFESSOR NORMAN STONE BURIED IN TURKEY

05.07.2019

It was quite well-known that Professor Norman Stone loved Turkey and considered the country his second homeland. In accordance with his will, Professor Stone, who passed away in Budapest was brought to Istanbul and buried in the Protestant cemetery on Wednesday, 3 July, 2019. Attended by his family, friends, colleagues and his students, the burial ceremony created one more occasion to recall the virtues of a great man and historian. Professor Norman Stone will now forever be missed and remembered in this country, which now also became his eternal home.

Kaynak/Source: