AVRASYA DÜNYASI / EURASIAN WORLD - CALL FOR PAPERS

09.01.2020

Avrasya Dünyası / Eurasian World has been published by AVİM since October 2017. Its mission is to present analytical assessments of academics and experts on the current developments in the Eurasian region to the reader. Within this framework, Avrasya Dünyası / Eurasian World publishes analytical articles and interviews that would help to comprehend economic, social, and political developments in the Eurasian region composed of Central and Eastern Europe, Balkans, Black Sea region, Caucasus and Central Asia. In addition to that, developments that took place in the adjacencies of Eurasia such as Western and Southern Europe, Iran, Afghanistan, India, Pakistan, China, Korea, Japan and ASEAN countries that affect and are affected by the developments in Eurasia are also among the interests of Avrasya Dünyası / Eurasian World. For more information, as well as the previous issues of Avrasya Dünyası / Eurasian World please visit <https://avim.org.tr/en/Dergiler/Avrasya-Dunyasi-Eurasian-World-1>.

The 6th issue of Avrasya Dünyası / Eurasian World will focus on the current developments in Central Asia. Some of the topics that the contributors to this issue are expected to elaborate are:

- State and nation building processes in Central Asia since 1991, and their reflections today.
- Economic, cultural, and political interactions and relations among the Central Asian countries.
- Perspectives on regionalization in Central Asia.
- Energy and transport policies in Central Asia.
- Turkey's perspectives and policies regarding Central Asia, and its relations with the Central Asian countries.
- Perspectives and policies of Russia, US, and the EU regarding Central Asia and Central Asian countries.

In addition to these topics, analytical articles on consequential developments taking place in the other regions of Eurasia are also welcome.
