
WORKSHOP: 'INTERNATIONAL LAW AND 1915 EVENTS: CONTINUING STATE-SUCCESSOR STATE AND INTERNATIONAL REPARATIONS' 21.11.2016

The workshop on International Law and 1915 Events: Continuing State-successor state and International Reparations that AVİM organized in collaboration with Özyeğin University was held in Istanbul on 17-18 November 2016. During the workshop, issues such as theoretical and conceptual approaches to continuing state-successor state debates, the relationship between the Ottoman state and the Republic of Turkey with respect to the question of continuing state-successor state, and legal responsibilities were discussed by experts and academicians.

Kaynak/Source: